Victor Schaeffer- UT

Monday, July 19th – 10:00 AM

Lecture Title: It's Not What We Do, But How We Do It

Two-Time National Coach of the Year Vic Schaefer preps to enter his second season as the head coach of Texas Women's Basketball.

Schaefer, a Texas native who has spent 22 of his 36 years in coaching within the state of Texas and 28 years in the Southwest, is the fifth head coach in program history.

In 16 seasons as a collegiate head coach, which also includes seven seasons at Sam Houston State, Schaefer now owns a career record of 322-182 [.639]. Schaefer made quite an impression during his initial campaign on the Forty Acres by leading the Longhorns to 21 wins in 2020-21 as well as to the program's 10th all-time NCAA Elite Eight (first since 2016).

Before coming to Texas, Schaefer spent eight seasons as the head coach at Mississippi State (2011-20), where he led the Bulldogs to a 221-62 [.781] record and five NCAA Tournament berths, including two NCAA Championship Game appearances. Under his direction, Mississippi State won the program's first SEC regular-season championship and SEC Tournament championship and made five consecutive appearances in the SEC Tournament Championship Game, tying the University of Tennessee's record for consecutive tournament final appearances.

As a head or assistant coach, Schaefer has now been a part of one NCAA Championship, three NCAA Championship Games, four Final Fours, seven Elite Eight and 10 Sweet 16s.

As a player, Schaefer was an all-state performer in basketball, football, and baseball at Houston Lutheran High School before going on to play two seasons of collegiate basketball at Alvin Community College. He graduated from Texas A&M in 1984.

Schaefer and his wife, Holly, who played basketball at Arkansas State and later served as an assistant coach at UT Arlington, have twin children, Blair and Logan, both of whom graduated from Mississippi State during the 2017-18 year. Blair Schaefer currently serves as Texas' Director of Basketball Operations.
