

Officials Appreciation PA Announcement

We are pleased to welcome you today to (insert school name). We want to take time tonight to recognize the dedication and sacrifice that our officials make to be part of tonight's volleyball match. The fact is, tonight's match couldn't happen without officials, and in a time when Texas is experiencing a shortage of officials, we want to thank tonight's crew. We appreciate everything you do!

And if you are interested in stepping up and giving back to our student athletes, we encourage you to join the Texas Association of Sports Officials. Taso members are dedicated to making Texas middle school and high school athletics the very best. If you have never officiated before, don't worry- Taso will provide the training you need. So make your first great call by contacting Taso today at www.taso.org

Enjoy tonight's match and please be respectful to our hardworking officials.
